

Per-map normalized activation is not probability, area or physical localization; edge/background concerns remain.